KIDS ARE FREE AT MADAME TUSSAUDS AND LA TASCA

WASHINGTON, DC (January 15, 2008) — La Tasca Spanish Tapas Bar and Restaurant is teaming up with Madame Tussauds Wax Museum so kids can eat and visit for free! When you visit Madame Tussauds with your child, receive a card good for one free kid's meal at La Tasca. When you eat at La Tasca with your child, receive a card good for one free child admission to Madame Tussauds. Make a day out of museum visit and a Spanish meal!

La Tasca's kid's menu (with dessert and beverage) includes several traditional items with a Spanish twist. Children can enjoy our grilled cheese, chicken tenders, hamburger (all served with patatas), spanizza, or tortilla (traditional Spanish omelet). While waiting for the meal, turn to the menu to learn Spanish or enjoy games and activities such as coloring.

At Madame Tussauds children will learn about history and current events through a completely interactive experience with original wax statues! Sit at the oval office desk, sing with Beyonce, and be interviewed by Katie Couric. Guests can also learn the history behind the famous wax statues and Madame Tussauds herself.

This is valid only at La Tasca in Washington, DC at 722 7th St. NW and Madame Tussauds Washington, DC at 1025 F St. NW (4 blocks from each other). Both businesses are conveniently located off the Chinatown/Gallery Place metro station and the Metro Center metro station. This deal cannot be combined with any other offer, cannot be used for take-out, and requires a paying adult for offer to be valid.

La Tasca is a careful blend of everything about Spain – warm décor, authentic cuisine and friendly hospitality. All these combine to create a unique and genuine atmosphere. La Tasca strives to keep the Spanish culture and passion alive in its restaurants; to be local within its community while bringing to it, a taste of Spain. La Tasca is a Spanish restaurant with a combination of more than 45 Tapas dishes, delicious menu specials, 6 different paellas, 12 sangria blends, Spanish wines and beers. La Tasca has five locations in the United States; one in Baltimore and four in the Washington metro area. For more information visit www.latascausa.com.
